Numb. 1310

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 6. to Monday June 10. 1678.

Dantzicke, May 4.

FRom Poland we have an account, that the King does very highly reſent the ill treatment the Carmelite Friers received in the late diſorders here, and is ſending Commiſſioners hither to examine the matter, ſo that this City is like to have a great deal of trouble about this matter. The Peace between the Poles and the Turks is certainly concluded, and the Ratifications exchanged.

Vienna, June 2. On Tueſday laſt their Imperial Majeſties came hither, to make a viſit to the Empreſs Dowager, and in the evening returned again to Laxemburg. The Marriage between the Archdutcheſs Anne, the Emperors ſiſter, and the Prince of Neuburg, is quite concluded, according to the diſcourſe at Court, and will be declared when the Duke of Neuburg arrives here. The Letters from Hungary, ſay, that the Rebels, commanded by the Count de Teckely, were poſted at a place called Meppes, where he expected a Body of Coſſacks and Tartars to join with him; that the Count de Wurmb, who commands the Imperial Forces, had poſted Colonel Schmidt near Callo, to cover that place, which it's ſaid the Rebels intend to attack; that a party he had ſent out had met with and defeated a like party of Poles; that the new Prince of Tranſilvania, Paul Beldy, was returned from Conſtantinople with an entire ſatisfaction, and that Michael Abafty was abſolutely depoſed by the Port.

Copenhagen, June 7. The Troops are paſt daily over into Schonen. Yeſterday ſeveral Troops of Cavalry and Companies of Dragoons were put on board the Fleet; they have no Horſes, but take with them all the furniture for them; in what deſign they are to be employed we cannot learn; ſome are of opinion that they are to make a deſcent on the Iſle of Rugen. We have not any freſh account concerning the Suedes; the laſt we had was, that the King was very active to bring his Army into the Field, in order to the turning the Blokade of Chriſtianſtadt into a formal ſiege. It is ſaid the place is very much ſtreightned, and ſtands in great need of relief.

Berlin, June 8. Things were prepared for our Elector to take the Field as about this time; but at preſent we underſtand, that he hath changed his reſolution, and hath put off the march of his Forces till the beginning of the next month. Three Deputies are come hither from Dantzicke, they have had Audience of his Electoral Highneſs, and their buſineſs is to deſire the liberty of Dr. Strauch.

From the French Camp in Briſgow, June 8. Laſt night Monſieur de Bouflers was ſent out with the Battalions of Rouergne and Turenne, the Regiment of Dragoons of Coſſé, two Squadrons of Horſe, and two Wagons with Ammunition; his orders were to go and take a Poſt near St. Pierre. This day the Army is ordered to march, our head-quarter will be at Leuguenſen, and our Camp will reach as far Moltingden, by which we ſhall be pretty near the Enemy, who is advanced between Rugel and Quinzing. The priſoners and deſerters aſſure us that they intrench themſelves.

From the Imperial Camp between Valding and Lagendentzlingen, June 8. We are are advanced a League nearer the Enemy, the Advanced-guards of the two Armies do frequently skirmiſh, and the Cannon plays on both ſides upon ſuch parties as go out of their Camp. The Duke of Lorrain commanded yeſterday that all the unneceſſary Baggage, and the Women ſhould be ſent away, allowing only one Wagon to every Company, ſo that things look as if there would be a Battel. The General Officers have ſent their Equipage to Offemburg, and orders are ſent to the Troops, who are to the number of 6 or 7000 men with the heavy Cannon at Hoblengraben, as well to guard that as the Paſſages of the Mountains, to march upon the firſt ſignal to join the Army. We have three Bridges over the River Elz, and the Boats which were deſigned for the laying a Bridge over the Rhine, are ſent back to Strasburg. The deſign of the Duke of Lorrain ſeems to be to poſt himſelf between the French Army and Briſac, which the Mareſchal de Crequi will doubtleſs endeavor to prevent.

Strasburg, June 6.. The French Army under the command of the Mareſchal de Crequi having ſubſiſted two or three days at Languedenzling, removed the fourth inſtant to a place called St. George near Friburg. Yeſterday the Imperial Army paſſed the River Elz, and marched about three Leagues towards the Enemy, and this day intended to encamp between Friburg and Briſac. The Imperialiſts have quite taken away their Bridge between Capel and Rhinau. Theſe motions of the two Armies may probably engage them in a Battel. The Regiments that were at Treves, Luxemburg, and other places, are marching with all poſſible diligence to join the Imperial Army, they paſſed yeſterday by this City. At this inſtant we have advice, that the French Army marches towards Briſac, and that the Imperial Army is encamped at Regel, between Endniguen and Kentzingen, and that its Advanced-guards are at Eychſtet, within a League of the Enemies Camp.

Cologne, June 10. The States of the Country of Juliers have now agreed with the Intendant of Maeſtricht about their Contributions, and have already paid a very conſiderable Sum of Mony at Aix la Chapelle.

Ruremond, June 12. The Mareſchal de Schomberg is advanced from Dalem to Gulpen, and has been reinforced by ſeveral Troops from Maeſtricht; whereupon the Baron Chauvet has drawn the Lunenburg Troops out of their quarters, and is marching with them to have an eye upon the ſaid Mareſchal. He will be joined by the Brandenburg Forces commanded by Lieutenant-General Spaen.

Bruſſels, June 10. The French Army continues encamped as we told you in our laſt. Yeſterday their Cavalry came and Foraged within Cannon ſhot of